Schaeffer Family

Dear Folks,

These are all the statistics I have "rounded up" so far. I still hope to get some more and will get them to you when I do. If anyone can fill in any dates, correct names or family changes or additions, please let me know so we can keep up to date. I hope someone will use this information and make a REAL FAMILY TREE. I have enjoyed talking to and hearing from my cousins. I wish all of you (young ones) could have known Great Grandma Ridley. She knew more riddles than anyone and loved to tell them any time we would ask. Grandpap Schafer grew whiskers in winter and shaved them off in the spring. He was a sweetie, but didn't spoil us.

Grandma always had a snack for us (homemade bread and butter). Aunt Sis (Matilda Rebecca Ridley) made the best "Smear Case" you ever tasted and rocked and sang to all the babies. I have so many good memories of them all.

Thanks for your help and come see us when you can.

Lots of love,

Ida Phelps Sexton (Gerald)

If you could meet your ancestors
all standing in a row,
There might be some of them perhaps
You wouldn't care to know;
But there's another question which Requires a different view;
If you could meet your ancestors,
Would they be proud of you?

Dear Corrin Florence -

Well I have just got back from Milford as yesterday nothing formal was held. Mother passed away on Thursday at 10 o'clock in the morning.

I was up to Milford to take care of Mother from March 8 to the 13. in the week before and I could not stay there any longer as I did not know when she would go, so I came home and then on the next Thursday she went. I had a shock a lot of stuff and she could not eat for a week. But she had so much snow on the week before we could not bury her so I have got to go through it again. So I happened on about three inches and then to have her buried down to Belknap.

On the 14th a lot of flowers but a lot of people gave me many instead of flowers. So I will put some flowers on her grave when she is buried.

Carol and Annie H. like from Waltham and some flowers, but I did not hear from Ralph.

How is Grace? I have wrote to her two or three times and know where ~~she~~ she is. So will you write and tell me about I will.

Thank you for writing to Mother on Christmas and her Birthday. She was so pleased to hear from you. She could not read it but the women in the room read it to her.

Dear Florence,

Well we are trying to have some rain, but it seems doubtful. All we hear is thunder. Boy do we need it. Our lawn is a beautiful shade of brown.

How-how is the job going? Any new developments? You did well to get that stuff through your head in that little time. Glad you won that award for a good job. Too bad that they couldn't give you a little bit more.

Have the kids come back home yet? Want to keep the snap-shots longer as I haven't seen Melody yet.

Thought you would be interested in the clippings enclosed. What a sad thing for Uncle Hans + Aunt Hulda. He was the only one to carry on the Monson name.

Our vacation week was very hot and we spent most of it right in our own back yard. Had another week in Sept.

It was so nice to see you and George.

Scotty wants to know if he is still smoking. I got a kick out of George when he said he was self conscience about smoking when Scotty was around. Also when he tried to eat the cream-wheat because it was put in front of him.

Do you have anymore vacation time left? Our air conditioner is getting a good work-out. Boy it's been hot!

Hope you are feeling OK. We are OK right now.

Love,
Reta

HOME WEDDING.
A very pretty home wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo N. Whitney. When their daughter, Miss Ailie Louise Whitney, was united in marriage to Elmer William Thompson of South Framingham. At 3 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor, where the knot was tied, while Mrs. Arthur Whitney and Miss Gladys Whitney, violinist, played the wedding march. Elmer W. Wakeman, who performed the ceremony, led the march, followed by Miss Dorothy Whitney of Brockton, maid of honor, and niece of the bride. Then followed little Reginald Wakeman, ring bearer, who was followed by the bride on the arm of the groom. The bridal party stood under an arch of ivygreen and roses. The double ring service was used. The bride was dressed in lavender satin, trimmed with white lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white Bride roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in white voile, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers. Following the reception, a collation was served by Mrs. G. Russell Folt. Mrs. Forrest Hancock and Mrs. Albert Hancock. The ushers were Arthur Whitney of Brockton, Oscar Whitney of Cambridge, brothers of the bride, and Raymond Whitney of Connecticut, a nephew of the bride. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome wedding gifts, including money, cut glass, silver, lamp, clock, etc. The bridal couple left by auto, and showers of confetti for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends after Sept. 17 at 65 Union Avenue, Framingham, Mass. Mrs. Thompson, who has always resided there, was very active in church work, and will be greatly missed by all. The couple's many friends extend hearty congratulations to them.

His painful condition started for afternoon about 7 o'clock. He was taken to the street avenue where W. C. Cole, the negro, took the animal to guide the animal to horse, in crossing the car's shoe in the path, stepped on his side. Miss Gordon, who was sitting in the car, and her left foot was between the Belgian black and the Mr. Cole, dismounted quickly and tried to release herself. She was able to stand a removal to her home, and is still at Mrs. Innes Randolph, 28 East Preston street. Dr. Alan P. Smith was summoned, and found that several of the bones of the left foot were fractured and the ligaments were strained considerably. Miss Gordon was unable to stand a removal to her home, and is still at Mrs. Innes Randolph. A number of her friends called last night. It was lucky that when she fell, Miss Gordon slipped her foot from the stirrup, as had she not done so, she might have been dragged some distance, as the horse immediately began to run. Last night, Miss Gordon was resting quietly, but her foot was much swollen.

Death of Mrs. Lewis Vogle.
TOWSON, October 22.—Mrs. Vogle, wife of Lewis Vogle, a pallbearer in the Circuit Court here, died at her residence in this place about 2:30 o'clock to-day from paralysis. She had two attacks within the past week. She was aged about sixty-two years, and was a most estimable woman. She was a daughter of the late Joseph Fox, a sister of Wm. Fox of Goyanstown, and also of the wife of Colonel Edward Flayhart of Towson. Besides her husband, she leaves three children—a married daughter and two sons. The remains will be interred in the Presbyterian burial ground at Goyanstown, probably on Thursday. Mrs. Vogle, accompanied by her husband, selected the lot herself only a week before her death.

Samuel Young Dies from His Wounds.
ELKTON, October 22.—Samuel Young, the colored man who was shot by Asbury Cole in a row at a colored festival in Cecilton on the 27th of August, died yesterday. After the shooting Cole fled towards Fredericktown, and has not been arrested. Coroner Lutzberg held an inquest upon Young's body to-day. The state was represented by ex-State Attorney Daniel Bratton. The verdict of the jury was that Young "was feloniously, willfully and deliberately murdered" by Asbury Cole. The verdict was founded upon the ante-mortem statement of Young, which was made shortly after he was shot, and on the testimony of a number of witnesses who were present at the shooting.

Display of Natural Gas.
DANMARTON, October 22.—The natural gas exposition here to-day and night was a success, demonstrating the capacity of this field to be as great as any heretofore discovered. This territory has been developed by the Southeastern Gas Company, composed of Baltimore and Washington capitalists. The following members of the company are here to witness the display: Henry A. Parr, president; C. Ridgely Goodwin, W. H. Shrook, John E. Feltz, J. Slessinger, R. O. Holtzman, James Hume, Edward Graves, George O. Manning, William H. Hobilitzel, Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Holtzman, accompany their husbands. The town is ablaze with gas to-night and the streets are lined with sight-seers.

General Beaver in Maryland.
MARTINSBURG, W. VA., October 22.—General Beaver of Pennsylvania, to-day spoke to a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting at the Court-house. Although the rain fell in torrents, the building was filled to its capacity. The General made a strong and telling speech.

HIGH TIDE AT GETTYSBURG.
[From the Century.]
A cloud possessed the hollow field. The gathering battle's smoky shield, athwart the gloom the lightning flashed. And through the cloud some horsemen dashed. And from the heights the thunder pealed.

Then at the brief command of Lee moved on that matchless infantry. With Pickett leading grandly down. To rush against the roaring crown Of those dread heights of destiny.

Far heard above the angry guns A cry across the tumult runs. The voice that rang through Shiloh's woods And Chickamauga's solitudes. The fierce South cheering on her sons!

Ah, how the withering tempest blew Against the front of Gettysburg! A Kiamesa wind that scorched and singed Like that infernal flame that fringed The British squares at Waterloo.

"Once more in glory's van with me!" Virginia cried to Tennessee: "We two together, come what may, Shall stand upon those works to-day!" —The reddest day in history.

But who shall break the guards that wait Before the awful face of fate? The tattered standards of the South Were shivered at the cannon's mouth. And all her hopes were desolate.

In vain the Tennessean set His breast against the bayonet; In vain Virginia charged and raged, A Kiamesa in her wrath unceasing Till all the hill was red and wet.

Above the bayonets, mixed and crossed, Men saw a grave, gigantic ghost. Receding through the battle-cloud. And heard across the tempest loud The death-cry of a nation lost!

The brave went down; without disgrace They leaped to ruin's red embrace. They only heard fame's hunders wake. And saw the dazzling sun-burst break In smiles on glory's bloody face.

They fell, who lifted up a hand And bade the sun in heaven to stand; They smote and fell, who set the bars To check the progress of the stars. And stay the advancing Mother-land!

They stood, who saw the future come On through the fight's delirium: They strove and fell, who held the hope Of nations on that slippery slope. Amid the cheers of Christendom.

God lives! He forced the iron will That clutched and held the trembling him. God lives and rears! He built and lent The heights for freedom's battlement. Where floats her flag in triumph still!

Fold up the banners! Smelt the guns! Love rules! Her gentler purpose runs. A mighty Mother turns in tears. The pages of her battle years. Lamenting all her fallen sons!

WORSE THAN MURDERERS.

Two Brute Assault an Old Woman and Her Husband.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., October 22.—Mrs. Schorkowski, aged sixty-seven, who lives on Farm near Dayham, was dragged from her only this morning by two men and brutally assaulted about two o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Schorkowski were aroused by a noise at their front door. Before they could get up the door was smashed in and two ruffians rushed into the bedroom, seized the old lady and dragged her out to the roadside, where both men outraged her. Geo. Williams, colored, the first offender, held his hand over the old lady's mouth to prevent her from screaming. While Williams was committing the assault, the old lady's husband, who is seventy-seven years old, rushed up to defend her. Charles Crandall, white, the other brute, hit the old man on the head with a club, knocking him senseless. Crandall next assaulted the woman and then the sounder fled, leaving the couple unconscious by the roadside. When the old man recovered he aroused a neighbor, who drove to Middletown and informed Chief of Police Chapman. A physician was sent to care for the couple, and the chief, assisted by Officer Kincaid, tracked the men to an unfrequented place on the Dooley farm, where they were found playing cards in a wood-chopper's shack. They were quickly handcuffed and taken to Schorkowski's house, where both were fully identified.

The horrible character of the case has created intense excitement in that vicinity.

THE PROPOSITION REJECTED.

The Indians By a Large Majority Decline the President's Offer.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—Secretary Vilas said to-day that the Sioux chiefs had formally notified him that they had rejected by a large majority, the propositions made by the President through the Secretary last Wednesday. They submitted a counter-proposition agreeing to accept $1.25 per acre, the money to be paid at once. This proposition, the Secretary declared, could not, for a moment, be entertained by the government. A small minority signified their willingness to accept the propositions. This concludes all negotiations under the new law which were opened by the appointment of the Sioux commission. The chiefs will be presented to the President this afternoon, and will leave for their reservations to-morrow. Secretary Vilas expressed the opinion that one of the principal reasons for the rejection of his proposition was due to the fact that the proposition of the law would break up tribal relations, thus depriving the chiefs of their present authority.

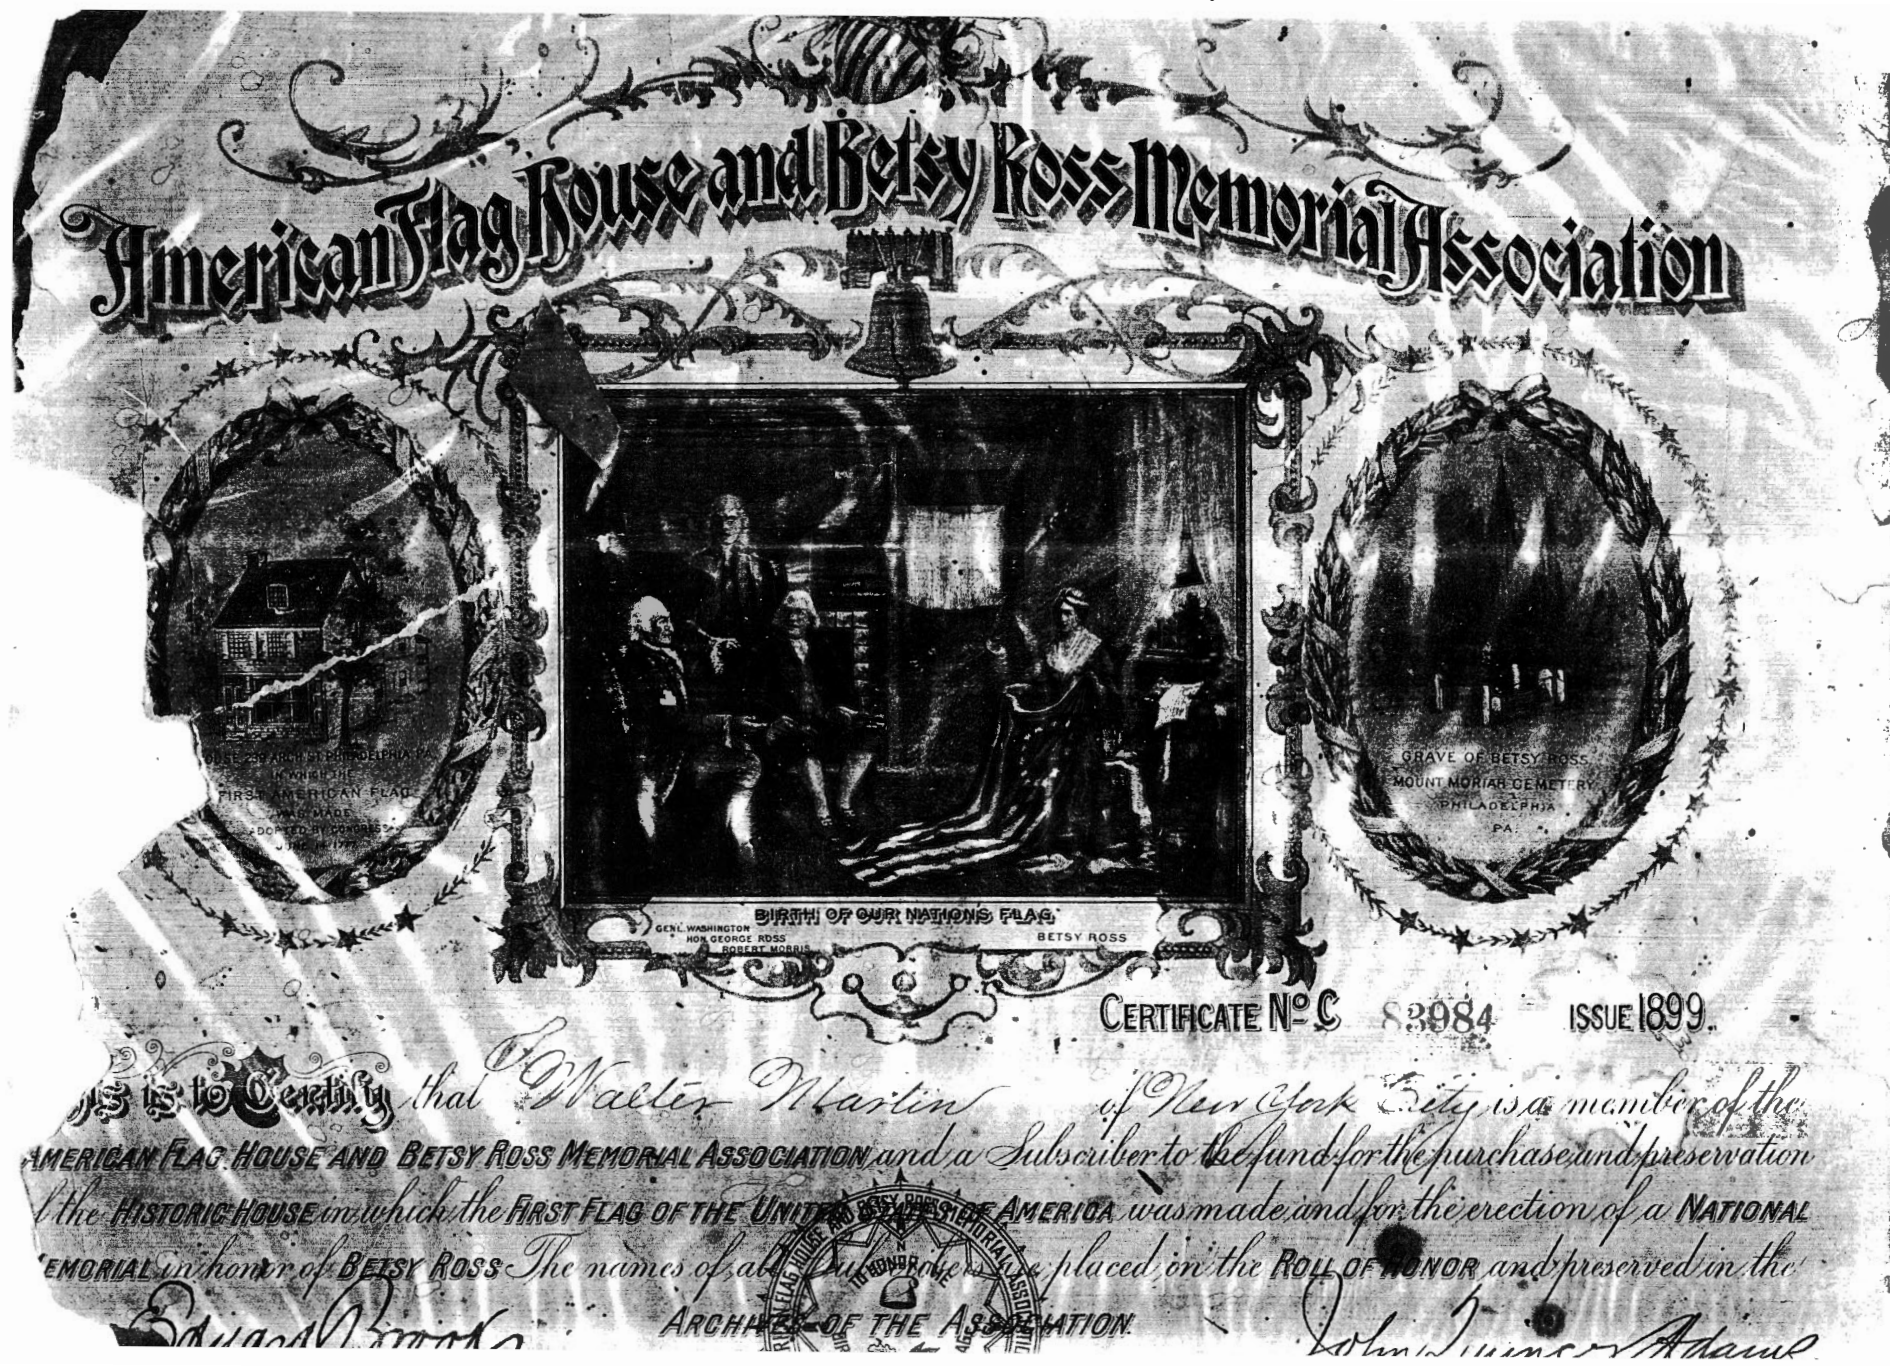

Failure of an Accomac Merchant.

OKANOCOK, October 22.—E. W. Barnes, a merchant, doing business near Bixlar Station, Accomac county, has made an assignment to his father, W. G. Barnes, and his former partner, R. J. Mason, as preferred creditors. Liabilities about six thousand dollars, as estimated, but considered only nominal. Barnes has left the county, and is supposed to be in Norfolk or North Carolina. He received many of his fall goods after he had made the assignment.

Former Bellingham Woman Dies
BELLINGHAM — Mrs. Annie M. White, 77, of 132 Grandview avenue, Winthrop, formerly of this town, died in Winthrop. She was the wife of Carroll F. White.
Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Vera Abrams of Auburn, Me., and Mrs. Edna Dalgie of Pascoag, R.I.
Funeral services were today in the Reynolds Funeral Home, Winthrop. Rev. Thomas West, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Winthrop, officiated. Burial was in Center Cemetery.

I THINK EX-Hopedale Man Dead
HOPEDALE—Richard White, 28, of Winthrop, formerly of this town, is believed to have drowned when his skiff capsized off Deer Island Light Sunday night. White was employed by the Draper Corporation during his residence here and lived with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fred White, now of Green Harbor. A search by police and Coast Guard failed to turn up any trace of the young man.
White's home is at 133 Grandview avenue, Winthrop. A companion, Eugene W. Clement, 29, of 14 Peabody avenue, Winthrop, saved himself by swimming to Calf Island, where he spent the night on the beach. He was found and brought home.
A Coast Guard helicopter from Salem spotted the overturned boat a half-mile off Calf Island. Searchers said the current there probably carried White's body out to sea. The hunt was called off at nightfall and was resumed yesterday.
Clement said the 14-foot skiff, equipped with an outboard motor, turned over about 11 p.m. He didn't know what caused it to capsize, he said.
The two men clung to the overturned boat for about two hours. Then White slipped off. Clement grabbed him and put him over the bow. But a few minutes later White slipped off again. This time he vanished.
Clement was able to reach Calf Island. At dawn he was found by Arthur and Arnold Sorenson, who live there with their brother, Berner, the owner of the island. They took him ashore. Despite his ordeal, Clement did not need hospital treatment.
